500 Plum Street Syracuse, NY

This prestigious Class A office building is situated in the historic Franklin Square neighborhood of Syracuse, New York and offers sweeping views of downtown, the newly renovated Onondaga Creek walking path, Onondaga Lake and the Inner Harbor. Comprised of 121,649 leasable square feet and 500 car parking (including enclosed garage), 500 Plum Street is host to a number of institutional, corporate and governmental tenants, several of which have been in occupancy since the building was redeveloped from a factory in 1989.

Superior in quality, design and location, 500 Plum Street separates itself as one of Syracuse's finest office buildings. From the striking moment of arrival, crossing over the Onondaga Creek Walk, and entering the glass and marble foyer, one can truly recognize the value and advantages of this building.
